

Train frequency to and from London Waterloo

Weekdays only between 5 - 28 August 2017 (excluding 25 August)

Suburban lines - evening peak

Based on weekday evening peak departures from London Waterloo between 1730 - 1829

The number in the top half of circle shows current trains per hour.
The number in the bottom half shows trains per hour.

- Stations with an increased frequency.
- Stations with no change to frequency.
- Stations with a reduced frequency.
- Stations with NO THROUGH SERVICE to London Waterloo. See lettered note for alternative travel advice.
- No South West Trains services. Passengers should use Southern services to London Victoria.

Local train service and connections for London Waterloo

A - Station closed. Use other stations nearby.
 B - Station closed. Use local TfL buses to stations nearby.
 C - No trains will run between Chessington South and Malden Manor. Rail replacement buses will run between Worcester Park and these stations.
 D - Earlsfield will have no train service between 1630 and 1930. Passengers should use other stations nearby.

WATERLOO & SOUTH WEST UPGRADE

SOUTH WEST TRAINS